

JOB ROLE

BOOKKEEPER

About the Role

Due to continued growth we are recruiting for another member to join our dynamic Ballasalla-based team.

You will play an integral role within our accounting team, actively collaborating with the team to deliver excellent service to our clients and inhouse companies. Flexible in your approach with the ability to work with the team across multiple projects within a client-focused, entrepreneurial environment, you will be a self-starter responsible for managing your work within tight deadlines.

Skills and Knowledge

- Ideally, you are working towards a relevant qualification or you have relevant bookkeeping experience.
- You will have worked with various multicurrency payment platforms.
- You should have a good working knowledge of excel and word.
- As a forward-thinking company, we employ state-of-the-art software which allows our team to focus on value-added work, thus having experience with Xero accounting will be beneficial but is not essential.
- Since our client relationships are key to our success, you must have excellent client relationship skills and be able to work within tight deadlines to the high expectations set by our clients.

The duties of the role include, but are not limited to the following

- Assisting with client payments and accounting.
- Ensuring accurate monthly client invoicing, including credit notes as applicable.
- Executing monthly and year-end intercompany reconciliation processes.
- Assisting with monthly management accounts as required.
- Ensuring timely and accurate delivery of client services and assignments.
- Other ad-hoc duties as and when required.

What the Company offers

- A competitive market related salary and benefits will be offered to the right candidate based on relevant experience and qualifications.
- Benefits include non-contributory pension, bonuses and private health.
- 25 days holiday allowance which increases by one year-on-year up to a maximum of 27 days.
- Ongoing training and personal development.
